

FRIENDS OF ENGLISH THEATRE

presents

A SATURDAY SPECIAL: THEATRE, DINNER AND LIVE MUSIC
SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 2019

THE SHOPLIFTERS

WRITTEN & DIRECTED BY MORRIS PANYCH

at the

CENTAUR THEATRE in MONTREAL

Two-time Governor General Award-winning playwright, Morris Panych, pulls out all the comedic stops in his hilarious examination of the effects of capitalist culture on the haves and have-nots. "Stealing isn't always about taking things."

Playwright, actor, and director Morris Panych is a man for all seasons in Canadian theatre. He has directed over ninety productions across Canada, and written thirty plays that have been produced throughout Canada, Britain, the United States, Europe, Asia, Australia, and New Zealand in a dozen languages.
