AT THE CENTAUR THEATRE:

CHOIR BOY

BY TARELL ALVIN McCRANEY

The Charles R. Drew Prep School for Boys is dedicated to the formation of strong, ethical Black men. One of the top playwrights in the US and UK, Tarrell Alvin McCraney has created a powerful coming-of-age story threaded throughout with stirring a cappella gospel music. Pharos is a brash, young gay man; Bobby, is a well-connected legacy student. When these two compete to lead the legendary choir at their elite African-American prep school, their confrontations lead to huge revelations about identity, loyalty and friendship.

McCraney recently received a MacArthur "Genius Grant", served as the Royal Shakespeare Company's International Playwright in Residence and was featured in the PBS series Independent Lens: "Playwright: From Page to Stage".

Exceptionally beautiful, heart-pummeling piece of theater – Atlanta Journal-Constitution

AND MARKÉTA IRGLOVÁ BASED ON THE MOTION PICTURE WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY JOHN CARNEY

From the very first note, Once draws you in and never lets go. This achingly beautiful, joyously uplifting show strikes an unforgettable chord in audiences and speaks to the power of music to connect us all.
